

WORKPLAN FOR VISITING PROFESSOR

The individual workplan presented by the candidate must be written in Portuguese or Spanish and should meet all the following expected requirements:

1. Undergraduate course on “Art History”, offered in the Undergraduate Program in History, during the second term (semester) of 2019 and the first term (semester) of 2020.
2. Elective undergraduate courses in the Undergraduate Program in History, during the whole period of activities as Visiting Professor.
3. Elective graduate courses in the Graduate Program in History, on topics pertaining to the “Social History of Culture” Research Field.
4. In each term (corresponding to a semester), the selected candidate must offer a total of 120 hours of courses, including undergraduate and graduate courses. Courses are usually offered in a 60-hour format or, exceptionally, a 30-hour format.
5. Development of research activities on topics pertaining to the “Social History of Culture” Research Field, during the whole period of activities as Visiting Professor, in accordance with a brief research project, no longer than 2 pages, presented in the individual workplan.
6. Organization of academic event (e.g. seminar/conference) on topics pertaining to the “Social History of Culture” Research Field.
7. Participation in examination boards for undergraduate dissertations, master’s dissertations, and doctoral theses.
8. Planning and execution of university outreach activities.
9. Preparation and/or publishing of at least one the following outputs on each year: paper in a scientific peer-reviewed journal, book chapter, or book.
10. The individual workplan presented by the candidate must include a personal presentation text, no longer than 10 pages, presenting the candidate’s academic background and stressing the relevance of his or her scientific production to the fields related to the Visiting Professorship.

UNIVERSIDADE FEDERAL DE MINAS GERAIS
FACULDADE DE FILOSOFIA E CIÊNCIAS HUMANAS
DEPARTAMENTO DE HISTÓRIA